GERMANS EVACUATE FORT VAUX NEAR VERDUN

Important Stronghold Captured By the Crown Prince at Tremendous Cost Again Falls Into Hands of French.

Early All of Ground Captured By the Germans Early in Campaign, East of Meuse, Is Recovered.

Mackensen Believed Preparing for New Stroke.

(Associated Press Cable.)
Verdun, November 2.—Fort Vaux, one of the most important fortifications captured by the German Crown Prince in his drive at Verdun, has been evacuated by the Germans, Berlin announces today.

Shortly after Douaumont had been taken and a wide stretch of front line region regained by the French in their offensive October 25, it was known that Fort Vaux likewise had been put in a perilous position. The French advanced close to the fortification in their drive and pushed well beyond each side.

The Germans evacuated the fort the night without hinderance by the French, and after portions of the fort had been blown up, Berlin reports that all the ground taken by the Germans on the east bank of the Meuse in their winter and spring offensive at Verdun has now been lost.

French troops operating in the Les Eparges and Rancourt sections, on the front, also gained yesterday. Paris report of last night announced these advances is practically confirmed by the Berlin statement which conceded French gains east of Morval and on the edge of St. Pierre Vaast Wood, but declared that the main effort of the German drive to move forward was completely repulsed.

British likewise, says Berlin, are making an attack north of Courcelles on the Somme front. German last night reported gains in the Douaumont sector in operations in conjunction with the French, but added today that heavy rain was delaying and that there were no noteworthy happenings during the night.

There is no apparent let-up in the fighting which General von Falkenhayn is exerting along the Roumanian southwestern frontier, but in general the Roumanians are reported to be holding him fairly well in check. New advances of importance are expected today by the German War Office.

In the meantime, however, military circles are looking shortly for developments from the province of Dobruja on the southeast front, where a change in the situation has been the usual report from both sides for several days. Marshal von Mackensen is believed to be making preparations for a new stroke in an effort to complete his conquest of the province, from Bucharest comes unoffi-

"MERCY MILITIA" GIVES AMBULANCES FOR PARALYSIS CONVALESCENTS' USE

When lovely woman stoops to fashion it is always an event of interest. But when superbeauty stands arrayed in gorgeous gowns and dazzling jewels it becomes an event of importance. Such an event of importance was the carnival of fashion held in the ballroom of a fashionable New York hotel for the benefit of the ambulance fund of the Woman's American Supply league, oftentimes referred to as the "Militia of mercy." Assisting were members of the New York state committee on national patriotic relief. Mrs. John Hays Hammond, wife of the mining expert and capitalist, is president of the fund, and Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy is one of her prominent assistants. Picture showst hem making bandages.

The generous response of those present assures the addition of many ambulances to transport the youthful victims of New York's recent infantile paralysis scourge to and from the hospitals. The exact total of the receipts will not be definitely known for a few days. One man alone, disappointed by his failure to purchase a box for the evening, made known his intention of personally purchasing an ambulance.

Many prominent women were among the patronesses of the carnival of fashion, including Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. Ogden Goelet, Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Mrs. John Purroy Mitchell, Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, Mrs. George W. Wickerham, Mrs. Franklin Mott Warner, Mrs. John Drew, Mrs. James K. Hackett, Miss Emma Frohman and Miss Maude Wetmore.

HUGHES IS CONFIDENT

Republican Nominee Pleased With Reception in Both Ohio and Indiana.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Batavia, New York, November 2.—Charles E. Hughes declared today before an audience here that he is entirely confident of the result in both Ohio and Indiana.

"I have returned from a trip through Ohio and Indiana," he said, "with a profound sense of gratification and entire confidence with respect to the result in both states."

"In both Ohio and Indiana, it is not exaggerating to say that I had receptions which perhaps exceeded those accorded to any other presidential candidate."

"That was, of course, as I said last night, not a tribute to me, personally, but it was an indication of the deep interest the people are taking in the essential conditions of their prosperity and their satisfaction that there is a great reunited Republican party ready for service at this critical time."

"So far as promises go, no one can exceed the promises of our opponents, but we measure what they say by what they have done."

Mr. Hughes assailed the Democratic Party for failure to reduce the high cost of living "as promised four years ago" and for extravagance.

"They tell us now," he continued, "that they are going to deal with economic problems that confront us at this time in a satisfactory manner, but if we endeavor to ascertain by what principle they are to be guided we will look in vain. I propose to tell you by what principles we shall be guided."

Mr. Hughes then reiterated the policies which he intends to follow if elected.

GUARDS SHOT BY BANDITS

Mexicans Loot Train And Then Abandon It.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chihuahua City, Mexico, November 2.—After shooting the twenty nine Carranza military guards of the south bound passenger train which left Juarez Monday, Villa bandits looted the train near Laguna Station, robbed the passengers, and even took the clothing from women passengers.

The bandits then abandoned the train, carrying the loot away in wagons.

The Carranza troops were in a box car when about 200 Villa supporters stopped the train. They were ordered to alight and were shot down before the eyes of the passengers as they did so.

COAL ROADS MAKE REPORT AS TO CARS

Commission Will Now Undertake to Find Cause of Shortage and Bring Relief.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, Ohio, November 2.—The twenty or more coal carrying railroads operating in Ohio reported to the State Utilities Commission today the number of cars in transit, the number of loaded cars at stations, and the number of days detention of these cars.

Upon the basis of these reports, supplemented by reports of these seven state inspectors investigating the subject, the commission will undertake to determine the cause of the car shortage and the resultant high price of coal.

Among the principal roads reporting today were the Hocking Valley, the T. & O. C., the N. & W., the B.

& O., the Wheeling & Lake Erie, Michigan Central, Big Four, and the Kanawha & Michigan.

These roads reported more than 15,000 loaded coal cars in transit and at stations October 30.

While most of this coal was from Ohio mines, a very considerable part was from Kentucky and West Virginia fields.

The reports showed demurrage on cars reported detained was from one to five days.

Attorney General Turner transmitted to the commission a copy of a report of the purchasing agent of the Columbus Street Railway Company, in which the agent says there are many idle cars and locomotives and idle train crews in Ohio which could be utilized in this emergency.

The agent charges that some of the roads are sacrificing everything to take care of ore shipments and finished products from the mills.

The big coal operators, his report said, are doing everything to take care of their contracts, while the small operators with no contract obligations are reaping the harvest of high prices.

Kentucky mines are not shipping on orders at all, but have simply laid down and refused to fill low priced contracts, the agent reported.

Lake shipments, he said, have practically ceased, and about 75 per cent of the coal is now moving on a commercial basis.

Assertion Worth While

Henry Ford—he of automobile fame—has been prominent in the news of the day for some time. Mr. Ford has done great many things worth while and has said many things worthy of serious consideration.

Of course, like all human beings Mr. Ford's judgment, especially on public questions, has been demonstrated to be faulty. Some of his proposals have been a little beyond practical adoption but, nevertheless, he has accomplished many really great things. His life, taken as a whole has been such a conspicuous success, both morally and financially as to enable his views to be received with respect and consideration.

In one of his recent advertisements in support of President Wilson, Mr. Ford says: "I am more interested in measures than in men, I am not interested in parties at all."

No matter what one's preferences may be in this great campaign the doctrine preached by Mr. Ford in that one short sentence is worth while. There is a wealth of sound logic and patriotism expressed.

If the nation is to endure and the interests of the people to be served, men must discard blind party preference and vote for men and measures.

Party prejudice is the strongest enslaving chain which can be forged about a free people.

Don't be interested in parties. That's good.

The Deutschland Arrives

The German super-submarine merchantman, Deutschland, again riding peacefully and safely at her berth in the harbor at New London, Connecticut, having completed her second voyage from Germany to the United States.

The Deutschland is establishing a reputation as a "regular" trans-Atlantic liner, unloading her comparatively small but valuable cargo on the pier which was in readiness for her arrival. The time scheduled for departure is announced with the frankness that obtains to the big merchantmen in times of peace.

Americans have grown fond of the unique "liner" and their admiration for the brave captain Koenig and his crew has ripened into a deeper feeling.

The coming of the subsea vessel and the men who have three times piloted her through an ocean "alive" with dreadnaughts and destroyers, armed and armored ready to destroy on sight, has done much to create a favorable impression on this side for Germany.

The visit of the "U-53" and its destructive work outside the three mile limit made the coming of the Deutschland more welcome.

The regularity of the trips across the ocean does much to substantiate the claim of Germany that the proposal to maintain a fleet of merchantmen traveling under the surface of the sea, was being seriously tested out.

The Deutschland and her crew are welcome in America. The only wish is that all of Germany's submarine boat endeavors would be confined to an endeavor to restoring interrupted commerce.

Most close observers are honestly convinced that such a course would be of vastly more practical assistance to the cause of Germany than submarine warfare.

The Railroads Again

There seems to be no relief in sight for the people of Ohio from the oppressive conditions of the veritable coal famine which has seized the state.

Following the announcement by the national and state authorities that an investigation would be conducted into conditions which were the announced cause of the famine—carriage shortage—some of the local railroad managers stated that a proposal to declare a car embargo on interstate carriers, was being seriously considered.

All of which means, taking the statement at par value, that the big trans-continental lines are using all their own cars to haul the tremendous shipments of steel, munitions and grain to the coast. Not only that, but the cars of the local carrying roads are being retained by the interstate roads and are to handle the freight which has piled up on their platforms.

The profitable trans-continental freight traffic with its longer hauls is not going to be abandoned by the roads proposing to gather in all the shekels in sight while the war lasts, with its heavy demand for American exports.

The coal at the mines coming into Ohio on short hauls is not nearly so attractive as the long cross country business.

In a way, of course, the railroads are not at fault. But to arrive at that conclusion we must look at the situation solely as a business and cast aside all of the higher feeling for humanity.

Usually the railroad corporations are accredited with being operated solely on business principles.

Perhaps the cause of the high price of many other necessities can be traced to the same source and if so the national and federal authorities have some task on hands to change conditions.

Poetry For Today

PREPARED!

Hasten, nation! God doth need thee,
Hes hall lead thee. Speed thy feet
He hath led thee, sped thee, fed thee
With the finest of the wheat.

Thou art ready. Be but steady
To thy faith of Pilgrims days.
Thou has grown through years of chastening
Strong to lead in freedom's ways.
Europe's needy, by thy beacon,
Found their Plymouth in thy land.
Flood and earthquake, fire and famine
Feel thy ever-generous hand.

Mid thy gifts, O world-protector,
Let my altar-flame now soar,
Plead my will, thou world-director,
From thy peace-defended shore!
Nation peerless, fret and fearless,
Dare to summon war to cease!
Celt and Goth and Slav and Latin
Shall obey thy call to peace.
O'er these people, blind and stumbling,

Blow fresh breath of life again!
Lift the banner of my kingdom:
Peace on earth, good will to men!

BLOND ESKIMOS ARE VISITED BY WHITE MAN

First to See Them Since Explorer Radford Was Murdered.

Saskatoon, Sask.—The tribe of blond Eskimos which Harry V. Radford of New York, the murdered explorer, reported he had found on Coronation bluff, far in the arctic zone, have again been visited by a white man.

In a letter received, from the Rev. H. Girling of Emmanuel college by the Rev. Dr. Carpenter, principal of the college, the missionary announced he reached the tribe Oct. 10, 1915, and remained with them some time.

He asserts he is the first white man to dwell among the new found people, who since their discovery have constituted an ethnological mystery and formed the goal of unsuccessful expeditions.

The letter was dated last December from "Camp Necessity," ten miles from the blond tribe, the first of whom the missionary said he found about ten miles east of Cockburn point. Girling said the language of the fair skinned race has only a dialectic difference from that of the Mackenzie river Eskimos.

Toms River, N. J.—Toms River boasts of an honest fish. At least that's the version Edward Crabbe, a wealthy cranberry grower of Beechwood, gives of the recovery of a purse by Mrs. Mary Schwartz of the local laundry. Crabbe was fishing. A savage tug at his line presaged a game battle, but the fish got away. Crabbe reeled in to rebait his hook. On it was a purse containing $1 and some silver. Mrs. Schwartz identified it as her property.

NAVY IS VIGILANT. IT IS EASY TO TELL

On Watch For Any Breach of Neutrality.

DESTROYERS ARE ON EDGE.

Shore Leave Among Men of Fleet Has Been Greatly Curtailed, and Each Ship in Active Commission Has Virtually a Full Complement Always on Hand.

Washington.—The navy department made extensive preparations to see that American neutrality is not violated by the submarine raids on allied shipping. There was great activity in the destroyer flotilla at the naval base at Newport. Shore leave among the men of the fleet has been greatly curtailed and each ship in active commission has virtually a full complement always on hand.

Undutiful Sixty-year-old Son.

Camden, N. J.—William Brun, an undutiful son of some sixty summers, was sentenced to twenty days in the county jail by City Magistrate Stackhouse here for disorderly conduct. William had been intoxicated and had talked back when his ninety-year-old father read him an anti-alcohol lecture and then had resisted punishment.

AN AMERICAN TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER. sion has virtually a full complement always on hand.

Some neutral European countries have been compelled to protect their territorial waters against violation in which British, German and Russian ships have been involved. In some cases submarines pursued into neutral waters ships sighted on the high seas. American officials are determined that no ships shall be attacked in American waters.

Navy officers say that their preparations are more for developments rather than any immediate emergency. The German underwater craft operating off Nantucket shoals, it was said, have shown no disposition thus far to violate American neutrality, but officials wish to be ready to establish the patrol without delay.

Secretary Daniels gave high praise to the destroyer flotilla for saving the lives of those compelled to take to the small boats. A record for quick action probably was established when the destroyer Jarvis put to sea from Newport within fifty-six minutes after the S O S call from the torpedoed steamer West Point was received. Fifteen minutes later sixteen other destroyers had followed the Jarvis.

Bear Invades Orchard.

Hood River, Ore.—"Come home at once and kill a bear that is picking apples in the orchard," was the insistent message that Mrs. W. L. Hodges delivered the other day over the telephone to her husband in the city on business. Mr. Hodges lost no time in motoring to his Oak Grove home. Men working in the orchard tried in vain to keep the bear frightened away from timber growing along a draw after he had eaten his fill of apples, but brain escaped.

Conservative Investment

Conservative investment implies first—the consistent observance of known principles of selection—and second, a strict routine of careful watching afterwards to make sure that the property values and earning power behind the security are maintained.

Over a long period of years, 7% cumulative preferred stocks purchased in harmony with these principles, return a regular and profitable income and at the same time, assist to build up the productive resources of the community.

Fundamentally there is a great difference between conservative investment and dangerous speculation, and although the outward appearance is sometimes much the same, a little study soon reveals this difference.

We have just completed an interesting examination of this subject and will be glad to mail you a copy of our report without expense.

MERCHANTS AND EMPLOYEES DINE TOGETHER AT "Y"

150 Hear Practical Message From Dr. Boardman—Dr. Shepherd Discusses Charter Form of Government—Recital By Mr. Lewis.

The first meeting of its kind ever held in the city was that of the merchants and their sales forces, who dined together at the Y. M. C. A. and then listened to a very beneficial lecture by Dr. Boardman, who gave to the 150 persons assembled, a new vision of their responsibilities to the community.

The dinner was held in the main auditorium and Dr. Boardman's address was immediately after the meal. He impressed upon those present the fact that the attention or indifference of the sales people build up or destroy the commercial interests of a community.

At 7:30 Dr. Shepherd addressed several hundred persons at the high school auditorium, speaking on "City and County Politics," and discussing the charter form of government at some length.

Among other statements made by Dr. Shepherd in discussing the charter form of municipal government, he said that there are more than 1100 cities and towns in the United States now ruled by the charter form, and that only nine are large cities, the others being cities under 10,000 population. Forty-one of the cities have adopted what is known as the Commission-Manager form of government. Only two of the 41 have found it expedient to employ local men as managers, preferring to get an out of town manager.

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Paulsen meets the mothers of children under four years of age. At seven o'clock a conference on a "civic training school" will be held.

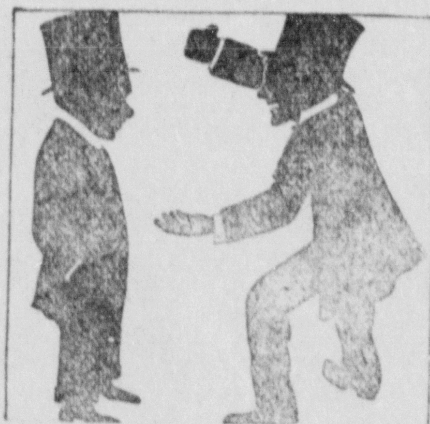

At eight o'clock Prof. Samuel Lewis will give a recital at the high school auditorium. Dr. Shepherd also speaks at this meeting, which is the only one for which a charge is made, and is to recompense the guarantors.

PENNSY HITS AUTO ONE MAN INJURED

Los. Whited and George Scott, employed by Dave Barchet, nearly met death at the Elm street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad, at 3:48 Wednesday evening, when west bound passenger train No. 519 struck a Ford truck in which they were riding, and tore the rear of the truck to pieces, painfully injuring Scott but Whited escaped with a severe shaking up.

The two men were on the way from the slaughter house when the train struck the machine, and had miscalculated the distance and speed of the train, which crosses Elm street at about 40 miles per hour.

The truck was virtually torn to pieces by the impact. Both men were still in the machine when the train backed up to the scene the crew expecting to find both men mangled.

REVELERS WILL FACE THE MAYOR

By locating one of the youngsters who recently took part in the damage to the terrace wall about the Hopkins premises on Washington avenue, Chief of Police D. L. Moore has succeeded in obtaining the names of some 12 or 15 boys ranging in age from 11 to 17 years who are to face Mayor Oster, Thursday night, and answer to him for their offense.

It is understood the boys have decided to pay for the damage done providing they are not prosecuted for the offense committed.

BOYS ARE HELD ON SUSPICION OF CRIME

Ernest Gilbert and Elmer Meadows, two boys who were arrested some ten days ago upon suspicion of knowing something about the robbery of Al Melvin's hardware store, and were later released, are again in the county jail and this time the police believe they have sufficient evidence against them to hold them for the crime.

The boys will face Mayor Oster within the next 24 hours, and definite developments are expected.

One of the most delightful affairs given by the Young People's Society of the First Baptist church was the Masquerade Social of Wednesday night, at the home of Miss Ida Hays.

The lower one contains water. The upper one is manipulated by a series of small weights and pulleys, which cause it to settle slowly downward, the air being expelled through a whistle, which has several modifiers to give variety to its tones. When the upper cylinder has come down the required distance a spring operates the weights that raise it again to repeat the sound.

URGES A REPEAL OF TARIFF ACT

Hughes Says He Would Protect American Industries.

WINDS UP MID-WEST TRIP

Delivers Five Speeches in Indiana in Which He Attacks the Underwood Law and the Adamson Act and Predicts His Own Election—Sees Return of Soup Houses When War Orders Cease.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 2.—Charles E. Hughes wound up his campaign in the middle west with a speech here and left shortly afterward for points in New York, the last state in which he will appear before election. Mr. Hughes made five speeches, and at each point he outlined policies he intends to follow if elected, assailed the administration for the enactment of the Underwood tariff and Adamson laws and expressed the belief that he would win.

"We had soup houses and bread lines twenty months ago," Mr. Hughes told his audience at Linton, "and we will have them again if we do not protect American industry, and if we attempt to carry on the business of this country on the policy indicated in the Underwood bill. When the war orders end," he said at Brazil, "under our present policy, as embodied in the Underwood bill passed by our opponents, you can just see yourself going back to work for one or two or three days a week. That is what it means to you.

"It is a perfectly absurd thing that any intelligent man should stand before the American community and talk about tariff for revenue only. You can not run the United States in that way. The nations on the other side are learning the necessity of protecting their interests.

"Even Great Britain, who, on account of her special conditions, favored the free trade policy so long, has come to a protective policy.

"And what will you see when this war is over? In the first place, you will find the nations over there have learned a great deal. They learned more in the years of this war than they have learned in a long period before. They have learned about themselves. They have learned how to cooperate. We have got to have a lot more of that in this country—a real genuine human interest in each other.

"The government in each one of the countries is back of it, doing all they can to stimulate their business. Now when the war is over we will find in every country protection to its own industries and an effort to build up its own industries through a protective tariff policy, and a seeking of other markets with their surplus production, at what prices they can get.

"And here is our great market, the greatest market in the world. Here is the gold that has accumulated during that time. Of course they will seek our market and then what will happen? Either their products will sell here and our products won't sell, or our men have got to take less money in wages. Now that is all there is to it."

ACTIVE ON BOTH FRONTS

Anglo-French Forces Deliver Attacks on the Somme.

London, Nov. 2.—Hard fighting is again taking place on the Somme front in France between the entente allies and the Germans.

Since Tuesday, the British and French near Courcellette and on the Lesboeufs-Geudecourt front and to the south have been attacking violently, with the Germans tenaciously holding their back, except to the east of Lesboeufs, where combined entente forces have gained some ground, and to the west of Lesboeufs, in the St. Pierre Vaast wood and near Sailly-Saillies, where the men of General Foch took additional German trenches.

Between Lesars and Gueudecourt, and in the vicinity of the Schwaben redoubt, the Germans are heavily bombarding British positions.

On the Transylvania front, the Roumanians are keeping up their drive of the Austro-Germans in the Jiu valley, but, according to Petrograd, the Teutons have occupied two villages south of the Rothenthurm pass.

WILSON BUFFALO SPEECH

Loss of American Lives Not Political Issue.

FIRST SPEECH IN NEW YORK

President Protests Against the Use of Foreign Relationships For Political Advantage—United States Not Disinclined to Fight, He Says, For Objects For Which It Was Founded. Questions to Be Faced.

Buffalo, Nov. 2.—President Wilson, in his first speech in New York since the campaign opened, declared that the United States is not afraid to fight and is not disinclined to fight for the objects for which it was founded. He opposed sectionalism and said the destinies of peace and war should not be used for partisan advantage.

Mr. Wilson questioned the patriotism of men "who, in the midst of the most critical relationships, the details of which they do not know, make play with the loss of the lives of American citizens even in order that they may create a domestic political advantage." He declared that political parties should be used, but that partisan use should not be made of them.

"Out of a heterogeneous nation we have got to make a unit," said the president, "in which not the slightest line of division is visible beyond our borders. Variety of opinion among ourselves there may be; discussion, free counsel as to what we ought to do, but as far as every other nation is concerned, we must be absolutely a unit.

"And I want to register my solemn protest here against the use of our foreign relationships for political advantage. I can not, I will not, regard any man as a patriot who does that—men who, in the midst of the most critical relationships, the details of which they do not know, make play with the loss of lives of American citizens even, in order that they may create a domestic political advantage.

"There are a great many social questions now with which legislation has to deal, very profound and radical questions. There are questions of justice, there are questions even of moral health. One of the things that America is beginning to perceive is that a court of law, for example, is not necessarily a court of justice. I say this with all formal respect for a profession which I long ago left, the profession of the law. What I mean is this: Law too seldom has any heart in it, too seldom has any bowels of compassion, too seldom has any quick sympathies of perception.

"There are things that we ought to see to that we have not been seeing to—the health, the moral opportunity, the just treatment, the neighborly relationships of men of all sorts and classes and conditions. I tell you, my fellow-citizens, until a political party or any other group of men get that thought at their hearts, they are unfit for the national confidence."

ment might delay awarding contracts until congress could be asked to increase the limit of cost 10 per cent or more. To undertake construction of the cruisers in government yards, it was said, would mean even greater delay while the yards were being equipped.

Bids for twenty-seven coast submarines and two 800 ton type fleet submarines also were received, and it is practically assured that all of these vessels can be built by private contract.

A NARROW ESCAPE

(By American Press)
Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 2.—Lawrence McCune, fifteen, is to get the chance in life which his surroundings up to this time have denied him. Brought here under four years' sentence for robbing a store in Lawrence county, Warden D. C. McClung of the state prison refused to accept him because of his age. McClung's auto carried boy, warden and Sheriff C. J. Farris of Lawrence county to the state capitol, where the board of pardons and paroles was in session. After hearing the lad's story, the board asked Governor Major to parole him. This was done. Then Sheriff Farris announced that he would give the boy a home and send him to school.

KEEPING IT UP

(By American Press)
New York, Nov. 2.—A "congress of constructive patriotism" will be held in Washington in January as a forerunner of a campaign in 1917 for greater national preparedness. It was announced here by the National Security league. At a meeting of the league a committee was appointed to urge the legislatures of forty-one states, which convene in January, to pass a physical and military training bill applicable to schools. The committee was also instructed to start a movement for universal military training and a resolution was adopted providing for the amalgamation of the women's section of the league with the main organization.

Cost Limit For Scout Cruisers Proves Unattractive.

Washington, Nov. 2. — Authority from congress to raise the cost limit may have to be sought by the navy department before it can award contracts for construction of the four 35-knot scout cruisers in the 1917 building program. Bids for the vessels were opened with the result that only one bidder, the Seattle Construction and Drydock company, offered a direct proposal. This company bid within the limit of $5,000,000 for hull and machinery, but it proposed to construct only one boat.

Two other bidders, the Union Iron Works of San Francisco and the Fore River company of Quincy, Mass., submitted proposals based on a sliding scale arrangement which would take into account possible variations of material and labor prices. The New York Shipbuilding company gave notice that it could not get its estimates within the limit of cost.

It was indicated that the depart-

Prest. Wilson's Policy Of Neutrality.

This policy may not satisfy those who revel in destruction and find pleasure in despair. It may not satisfy the fire-eater or the swashbuckler. But it does satisfy those who worship at the Altar of the God of Peace. It does satisfy the Mothers of the land at whose hearth and fireside no jingoistic war has placed an empty chair. It does satisfy the daughters of this land from whom bluster and brag has sent no loving brother to the dissolution of the grave. If does satisfy the fathers of this land and the sons of this land who will fight for our Flag, and die for our Flag when Reason primes the rifle, when Honor draws the sword and Justice breathes a blessing on the standards they uphold.

GLORIA'S ROMANCE

Of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes

Novelized from the Motion Picture Play of the same name by George Kleine.

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, with his daughter Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. Gloria falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school and meets Freneau at the theater; he has become a famous actor. Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lois, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her an ally. From her window an attack made upon him. Doctor Royce convinces her it is a delirium. A telegram followed by a letter, comes from Freneau. She replies but her telegrams are returned. She accidentally sees the supposed suicide of Freneau reported in the paper. Gloria swears to find the murderer of her lover. Royce tells what he knows of Freneau to Mr. Stafford. They seek to prevent scandal from enveloping Gloria. She accuses them of conspiracy against her. Gloria sets about to run down Freneau's murderer. Royce warns Mulry to tell Gloria nothing. Gloria calls on Mulry and there sees Lois who is also worried. Gloria's suspicions are aroused. Royce endeavors to show her the difficulty she faces. Gloria goes to Davy's country home. She meets Mulry who flees at once. Gloria insists on going to Palm Beach. Again she sees Mulry there. He leaves for the North. She is recognized by her one-time captor, the young Indian chief. He tells her that Royce and not Freneau was her rescuer at that time. Gloria attends night court; she sees Mulry there, also the tramp who attacked Freneau. But Judge Freeman releases him. She follows the tramp when he leaves the court and falls into the hands of hold-up men. She finds herself in a low saloon dance hall, and is selected by one of the patrons as his partner. Doctor Royce, however, follows her and when he attempts a rescue, calls down a riot on their heads. The hall is raided and the crowd, including Gloria and Royce, is arrested and taken before Judge Freeman. The newspapers feature Gloria's arrest. Reporters surround the house. Casimir arrives with the child Gloria promised to adopt. She orders Royce to take Casimir's wife to the Stafford home. She follows Trask and lands on a houseboat to hear him accused of Freneau's murder.

FIFTEENTH EPISODE

The Murderer at Bay.

Pierpont Stafford cherished his majestic country place principally because it furnished him an ample solitude. He could wander about it for hours and never meet a soul. If he wanted company, there was room for it in the palace and in the formally garden grounds. And he could look down on the tremendous peace of the Hudson river, admiring its strength as one strong man does another, and complimenting it on the efficiency with which it did such a big business with so little fuss.

He asked few persons to visit him, and those few only when the mood moved him. In his everyday life as a man of big affairs he met so many people and was so pointed out when he

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" the system and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

SUGGESTION TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready To Drop".

When you are "just ready to drop," when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. You can get it just as Mrs. Maxwell did. She says:

"I keep house for my little family of three, and became completely run-down. I was weak, nervous and could not sleep; finally I was unable to do my housework. A friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so and in proved rapidly. It toned up my system, I regained my strength, am no longer nervous, sleep well, and do all my housework." Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, Montgomery, Ala.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the oldest and most famous body-building and strength-creating tonics.

So many letters like the above are continually coming to our attention, that we freely offer to return the money paid for Vinol in every case where it fails to give satisfaction. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., O., also at the leading Drug Store in all Ohio towns. Advt.

THRILLING

Even when the lifeboats were being lowered the shelling continued, the affidavits state. The captain was taken on board the submarine and carried off. The Americans on board were Albert Hesler of Boston and George Murphy of Brooklyn.

EUROPE'S WAR NEWS TO HIM.

Explorer Stefansson Wept When Told About the Great Conflict.

Redwood, Cal.—Although the European war has been raging for two years, there is one man who did not know that the entente powers had so much as discharged a gun at the allies.

He is Explorer Stefansson, returning from his search for the north pole, who, when told of the European war by the crew of the revenue cutter Bear near Point Barrow, according to a letter received by Mrs. J. G. Gerlach of this city from her son Leonard, did not believe it.

In order to convince Stefansson that a war was raging Gerlach, who is the wireless operator on the revenue cutter, sent out a call to Nome asking for the latest war dispatches.

ZAYAS NOMINATED

(Associated Press Cable.)

Havana, Cuba, November 2. — At eleven o'clock this morning the official figures of the voting yesterday for President of Cuba gave Alfredo Zayas a majority of 9,000 for all the provinces in the Republic.

He was the nominee of the Liberal Party and opposed President Menocal, the conservative candidate.

A certain well known composer now in the full vigor of his established reputation was at one time when he was comparatively unknown engaged in writing the music for a production fathered by two managers who knew exactly what they wanted, in addition to knowing next to nothing of the musical classics. After having burned much midnight oil and worked himself into a state of semicollapse in a vain endeavor to produce a finale which would please them the composer tore up page after page of rejected manuscript and in despair took to the theater an entire section of "Faust" to which he had somehow managed to fit the words assigned to him. He played it over, and one of the managers said quite unfeelingly, "Well, Gus, the others were pretty bad, but this one is the rottenest of them all." "So?" remarked the weary musician dryly. "It was considered good when Gounod wrote it!"

To the great relief of the neighbors the snobbish and unpopular Jones family were moving.

While the furniture was being brought out some difficulty was experienced in removing a pianoforte from an upper room, and some one proposed getting it through a large window and sliding it down.

Then came a suggestion from the Jones' next door neighbor, who had long fostered the deepest enmity toward them, though until now she had attempted to conceal it.

"No," she said acidly, all her pent up bitterness at last showing itself in her tone; "let it come out as it went in—on the installment system!"—London Mail

CROSS COUNTRY AVIATOR LANDS AT ERIE, PENN'A

Loose Engine Pipe Causes Descent of Carlstrom.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Erie, Pa., November 2.—Aviator Victor Carlstrom, who is flying from Chicago to New York, landed in this city at 11:26 o'clock this morning because of engine trouble, but thereby establishing what is said to be a new American non stop flight record.

Erie is just half the distance from Chicago to New York.

After repairing his engine and replenishing his gasoline, Carlstrom started for New York at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and expected to complete his journey by 8 o'clock tonight.

He was forced to alight when a pipe became loose on his engine. He landed in a large open field on the edge of the city, and jumping from the plane at once began repairs.

He was delighted with the flight as far as he had gone and that the engine was doing all he had expected of it in the way of speed.

WHEAT BULGES UP ONCE MORE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, November 2.—Price bulges of as much as five and three eighths cents a bushel were shown on some transactions here today in wheat.

TO FIGHT PLAGUE

Experts Provide For After Treatment of Infantile Paralysis.

WILL TRAIN THE MUSCLES.

Practically Every Nurse in New York Will Be at Work to Prevent Victims From Becoming Permanent Cripples Committee Plans to Go After Neglectful Parents.

New York.—The committee organized by the various charitable institutions of the city to provide after treatment for the thousands of victims of the infantile paralysis epidemic has set vigorously to work in an effort to solve the greatest problem confronting it—the neglect of parents to bring their children to the hospitals and clinics for orthopedic treatment and muscle training work. These are essential if the children are not to become permanently crippled or deformed.

"Nurses employed by the committee are visiting every family in which there have been cases of infantile paralysis," said Dr. Donald Baxter, director of the committee, "and are trying to urge upon the parents the exreme importance of bringing their children to the hospitals before the paralysis becomes permanent. It is not necessary for parents to be wealthy to give their children the treatment they require. They will receive free the required orthopedic treatment and muscle training by the best orthopedic surgeons in the country."

The general committee has so arranged its work that every child will receive individual treatment by surgeons and nurses experienced in muscle training work.

The treatment for the first two or three years consists largely of massage, the use of electricity and muscle training and corrective gymnastics. Much value is placed by orthopedic specialists upon muscle training, by which the child is taught to regain control over the affected muscle groups. Practically every nurse in New York experienced in muscle training will be at work in one of the orthopedic institutions or clinics.
